

Meeting for International Students
from the University of Agriculture in Krakow
„How was your first day in the foreign country?”

Dear Students,

We would like to invite you for the meeting dedicated specially for International Students, who decided to come and study at our University. The topic is: „How was your first day in the foreign country?”.

In this event you will be listening two lectures from our professors and also take part in the discussion panel. The meeting will be about yours experiences and expectations in the foreign country, especially Poland. What was your first experience? What did you think about studying and living for a while in the foreign country? Did you experience cultural shock? What did you find in Poland that is similar to your own country, and what are the differences? How did you prepared for the mobility? What did you research when you decided to visit foreign country? What did you expect? Did the Poland, Kraków, and our University match your expectantions?

After the meeting we invite you to the organised city tour around Old Town with the guide.

The meeting will take place at 11 am on the 8th of June 2022 (Wednesday) in the restaurant in Old Town, in the most picturesque part of Kraków, with the view of the Vistula River and Wawel Castle.

Hotel Pod Wawelem
